Jutta Kleinschmidt

The renowned racing driver, physicist and author Jutta Kleinschmidt is one of the most outstanding women in international motorsport. She is the only woman to have won the overall car category in the world's most demanding rally, the Dakar Rally. In her captivating talks, Jutta vividly shares her experiences of how she has managed to succeed in a male-dominated industry through intense dedication, tireless perseverance, ambitious goals, creative approaches and bold decisions. She emphasises that setbacks and crises can be seen as opportunities. Jutta Kleinschmidt will also be giving talks on the topic of "Mobility of the future". In 2021...
