

Dr. Eckart von Hirschhausen

Dr. Eckart von Hirschhausen studied medicine and science journalism in Berlin, London and Heidelberg. He is a doctor, presenter, magician, cabaret artist and author of numerous bestsellers that have sold millions of copies across Europe. His keynote speeches, presentations and readings are based on 30 years of stage experience and the latest scientific findings. Plus constructive and concrete ideas on how everyone can become part of the solution. This mix has made him one of the most sought-after keynote speakers. This is because he can move many people who can move more than he can. In business, politics, civil society...

Topics

Climate Change, Environment & Energy, CSR, Climate & Sustainability, Health & Nutrition, Society

Languages

German

