

Dr. Josef Braml

Dr. Josef Braml has been working for the German Council on Foreign Relations (DGAP) since October 2006, first as Managing Editor and Editor of the Yearbook International Politics and since June 2019 as Head of the Americas Program. Since January 2020, he has also served as Secretary General of the German Group of the Trilateral Commission. Since 2021, he has been contributing his more than 20 years of research work and experience in scientific policy advice to teaching and research activities at the Rheinische Friedrich-Wilhelms-Universität Bonn. There he supports the Center for Advanced Security, Strategic and Integration Studies (CASSIS) in...

Topics

Globalization, Megatrends & Education, Politics, Policies & Economy, Society, Transformation, Innovation & Technology, Trends, Future & Science

Languages

English, German

