

Dr. Carl Naughton Naughton

Dr. Carl Naughton is a transformation psychologist for “Open Minds” and an active, nationally and internationally networked researcher. Dr. Carl Naughton is not just a source of inspiration, he is an experience. With an unmistakable mix of science, humor and inspiration, he takes his audience to the limits of the conceivable – and far beyond. In his practical research, he is always looking for new, contemporary answers to his core question: How can we use psychology to create a successful (working) life? Previous answers include: with curiosity, courage for the future, adaptive intelligence and cleverness. His method? Science meets lifeblood....
