

Sebastian Decker

Sebastian Decker is a sought-after expert for data-driven online marketing and online store building and is booked as a speaker, consultant and trainer by renowned companies and agencies (DHL, DURST Group, Reiseland, Clever Fit, etc.). He gives guest lectures at various colleges and universities. His analyses are razor-sharp, to the point and easy to understand. Sebastian Decker: “SMEs and our large-scale industry have highly efficient production, but highly wasteful sales. The digitalization of sales processes is the key to success here.” Sebastian Decker enables companies to use their own data more effectively and to tap into the data of the...
