

Urs Meier

Urs Meier: Caught in the crossfire – decisions under pressure. Urs Meier, born in Zurich in 1959, is married and the father of two grown-up children and a younger daughter. For many years, he was one of the world's leading referees. In 2004, he ended his career as a FIFA referee when he reached the age limit of 45 and has since been intensively involved in the systematic professionalization of international referees. Urs Meier Lecture Topics You are the decision Between the fronts – decisions under pressure Urs Meier – Former football expert at German TV ZDF From 2005 to...

Topics

Leadership & Recruiting, Motivation, Sport, Teamwork & Teambuilding, TED & TEDx

Languages

English, German

