

Frauke von Polier

Frauke von Polier is a respected leader in human resources management and organisational development. She has been Chief People Officer (CPO) and a member of the Executive Board of the Viessmann Generations Group since March 2021. In this role, she is responsible for leadership, organisational development, people analytics and cultural change within the company. Her goal is to work with CEOs and managers to build a healthy corporate culture that is both performance- and people-orientated. Frauke von Polier – impulses for the HR and organisational world: sought-after speaker and panellist Frauke von Polier redefines HR – not just as a...

Topics

Diversity & Inclusion, Employer Branding & Human Resources, Globalization, Leadership & Recruiting, Motivation, New Work & New Culture, Resilience & Stress Management, Teamwork & Teambuilding, Transformation & Digitalization, Transformation, Innovation & Technology, Trends, Future & Science

Languages

English, German

