

Zamina Ahmad

Zamina Ahmad is a recognized expert in artificial intelligence and data strategies. For more than 15 years, she has been intensively involved in the analysis of data and the development of machine learning systems. With her company shades&contrast, she has specialized in the development of fair and ethically responsible AI. She not only brings in-depth technical expertise, but also the valuable perspective of a woman of color in the AI industry. She is highly committed to ensuring that AI solutions are not only efficient, but also inclusive and fair. Zamina Ahmad Lecture topics AI in Action: Balancing Innovation, Ethics, and...

Topics

Diversity & Inclusion, Robotics & Artificial Intelligence, Transformation & Digitalization, Transformation, Innovation & Technology, Trends, Future & Science

Languages

English, German

