

Karl-Theodor zu Guttenberg

Karl-Theodor zu Guttenberg is Chairman of Spitzberg Partners LLC, an international investment and advisory firm headquartered in New York. He is also a Distinguished Statesman at the Center for Strategic and International Studies (CSIS) and has advised the European Commission as Senior Advisor. He serves on several corporate and non-profit boards and is active on various advisory boards, including Edelman, BDT Capital, Barrick Gold, Samsung, Ripple, the Institute for Strategic Dialogue and Clocktower Technology Ventures. One of Europe's best-known politicians, Karl-Theodor zu Guttenberg was first appointed Minister of Economics and Technology in 2009 before later serving as Minister of Defence...

Topics

Cybersecurity & Cybercrime, Financial Markets & Banks, Globalization, Politics & Economy, Politics, Policies & Economy, TED & TEDx, Transformation & Digitalization, Transformation, Innovation & Technology

Languages

English, German

