

Markus Jerger

Markus Jerger is one of Europe's most influential voices in economic policy. As president of the European Entrepreneurs Association, chairman of the EUPIC Foundation, and an internationally networked top manager, he stands for future competence and strategic foresight. The fifth-generation Swiss-German entrepreneur combines entrepreneurial practice with a global perspective—and provides guidance in times of profound change. 'Markus Jerger combines deep economic experience with international negotiating skills and a network that is second to none.' His work builds bridges between business, politics, and diplomacy and strengthens the competitiveness of European companies. Hardly anyone knows the challenges and opportunities facing small and...

Topics

Employer Branding & Human Resources, Globalization, Leadership & Recruiting, Politics & Economy, Teamwork & Teambuilding, Transformation, Innovation & Technology

Languages

English, French, German

