Mental Health Expert, Leadership & Education Expert

Franziska Fussek

Franziska Fussek is a Futurologist, Neuroscientist and Mental Health Expert. Franziska Fussek speaks about mental strength where it truly matters: under pressure, in complex environments, and in critical decision-making moments. She combines neuroscience and psychology (King's College London) with hands-on experience in finance/capital markets and business development – fields in which communication, narrative, and performance are not "nice to have" but business-critical. Franziska Fussek Keynote topics Franziska Fussek's keynotes are positioned at the intersection of neuroscience, mental health, leadership, culture and artificial intelligence. At their core is one central question: How do people remain clear, capable of making decisions and…
