

Zarah Bruhn

Zarah Bruhn represents a new generation of female entrepreneurs who combine economic success with social responsibility. Born in 1991, the founder, social entrepreneur, supervisory board member, and political influencer is one of the leading voices for social innovation in Germany. Her work demonstrates how entrepreneurial courage, technological thinking, and the will to change can help address social challenges in an effective and forward-looking manner. Zarah Bruhn Lecture topics New beginnings, courage & the positive unknown The world in leaps and bounds: innovation as the greatest opportunity It has never been easier to change the world Global inspiration – from Nobel...

Topics

Diversity & Inclusion, Employer Branding & Human Resources, Leadership & Recruiting, Megatrends & Education, Motivation, Politics & Economy, Robotics & Artificial Intelligence, Society, Transformation & Digitalization, Transformation, Innovation & Technology, Trends, Future & Science

Languages

English, German

