

Political scientist, Futurist, Author and Journalist

Dr. Wolfgang Gründinger

Dr. Wolfgang Gründinger is a future lobbyist, author and publicist – and is one of Germany’s most prominent and outspoken thought leaders. With a clear stance, well-founded analysis and a keen sense of the social issues of the future, he gets to the heart of topics such as intergenerational justice, digitalisation, climate protection and political responsibility. Wolfgang Gründinger has received numerous awards for his work, including the ‘Das Politische Buch’ prize, the Prize for Political Journalism, the German Environmental Foundation Book Prize and the Intergenerational Justice Prize. Today, he is Chief Evangelist at the Berlin-based solar energy start-up Enpal –...
