President of the Taxpayers' Association – Expert in public finance and reform policy

Reiner Holznagel

Reiner Holznagel is one of Germany’s leading experts on public finances and political decision-making processes. He explains how politics, government and money really work. Since 2012, he has been at the helm of the Taxpayers’ Association and follows the country’s fiscal policy debates at close quarters. Whether it is the federal budget, tax reforms, public debt, bureaucracy or economic competitiveness – Reiner Holznagel analyses political decisions not from a distance, but with many years of experience at the interface of politics, business and society. As President of the Taxpayers’ Association, he represents the interests of millions of taxpayers. At the…
