

Thought leader on the topic of Agentic AI & business

Tim Cortinovis

Tim Cortinovis is an internationally sought-after keynote speaker, author and thought leader in the fields of agentic AI, AI in sales and revenue transformation. Cited by Forbes as a “tech visionary” and recognised by Thinkers360 as a Top 10 Global Thought Leader in both agentic AI and sales, he supports Fortune 500 companies in their transition from human-orchestrated to machine-orchestrated revenue systems. Technological developments surrounding autonomous AI systems are currently fundamentally transforming how modern sales organisations operate. The real shift is not AI in sales, but rather that core revenue functions are crossing a threshold: from human-orchestrated to machine-orchestrated systems....
