

Carsten Maschmeyer

Carsten Maschmeyer is a successful entrepreneur, consultant, startup founder and financial investor. Carsten Maschmeyer sits on the jury of “Die Höhle des Löwen. He was born on May 8, 1959 in Bremen and grew up in Hildesheim, where he graduated from high school in 1978. To finance his subsequent medical studies, he worked part-time in the sales department of an investment consulting firm until 1982, when he devoted himself entirely to financial consulting. Carsten Maschmeyer: “There are no good companies. There are only good entrepreneurs.” Carsten Maschmeyer Speaking topics Startups: An (entrepreneurial-) life around the clock. Carsten Maschmeyer: Selfmade Me,...

Topics

Change-Management, Employer Branding & Human Resources, Financial Markets & Banks, Globalization, Leadership & Recruiting, Motivation, New Work & New Culture, Politics & Economy, Politics, Policies & Economy, Sales & Marketing, Transformation, Innovation & Technology, Trends, Future & Science

Languages

English, German

