

Kai Gondlach

Kai Gondlach is one of the first scientific futurologists in Germany, Austria and Switzerland. In his keynotes, he primarily conveys future competence. Companies, organizations and administrations rely on consultations and coachings of the foresight expert and founder of the Zukunftsinstitut PROFORE in Leipzig when it comes to the topic of strategic foresight. He is the founder of the Future Studies Alumni Association, a member of the Future Studies Network and the World Futures Studies Federation. As a member of the academic futures research community, he works in the environment of UNESCO and the Club of Rome on the implementation of...
