

Economist, Chairwoman of the German Council of Economic Experts

Prof. Dr. Dr. h.c. Monika Schnitzer

Prof. Dr. Dr. h.c. Monika Schnitzer is Professor of Economics at the Ludwig-Maximilians-Universität in Munich. Her research focuses on innovation, competition policy and multinational enterprises. She has been a visiting professor at Stanford University, Yale University, University of California, Berkeley, and Harvard University. Monika Schnitzer has been a member of the German Council of Economic Experts (Sachverständigenrat zur Begutachtung der gesamtwirtschaftlichen Entwicklung), better known as Wirtschaftsweisen, since April 2020 and its chair since October 2021. This makes her the first Chair of the German Council of Economic Experts in the body's almost sixty-year existence. Manager Magazin selected her as one...

Topics

Globalization, Megatrends & Education, Politics & Economy, Politics, Policies & Economy, Society, Transformation & Digitalization, Transformation, Innovation & Technology, Trends, Future & Science

Languages

English, German

