

Chester Elton

Chester Elton: Leadership, Building Great Workplace Cultures and Navigating Change Chester Elton is one of today's leading experts on workplace culture, leadership, and employee engagement. Over the years, he has collaborated with renowned organizations to cultivate high-performance cultures that drive innovation and employee satisfaction. As the co-author of multiple award-winning and New York Times bestselling books such as "All In," "The Carrot Principle," "Leading with Gratitude," "The Best Team Wins," and "Anxiety at Work," his works have been translated into 30 languages and have sold nearly two million copies worldwide. Elton is known for his provocative and inspiring leadership approaches...

Topics

Change-Management, Employer Branding & Human Resources, Internal communication, Leadership & Recruiting, Motivation, New Work & New Culture, Teamwork & Teambuilding, TED & TEDx

Languages

English

