

President of GE Spain & Portugal and CEO of Google Iberia (2005-2008), one of the top 50 most influential executives in the world according to Fortune Magazine.

Isabel Aguilera

Very few Spanish women have the privilege of being included in Fortune magazine's list of the 50 most influential leaders in the world. Isabel Aguilera is one of them. She is also one of the top 25 senior managers in Europe, according to the Financial Times, and was one of the 100 most influential people in Spain in 2006, according to the Spanish newspaper El Mundo. Aguilera is thus a woman who enjoys the highest professional recognition worldwide. She is also president of the Social Council of the University of Seville. In 2001, the Wall Street Journal, one of the...

Topics

Change-Management, Employer Branding & Human Resources, Globalization, Leadership & Recruiting, New Work & New Culture, Politics & Economy, Politics, Policies & Economy, Sales & Marketing, Society, TED & TEDx, Transformation & Digitalization, Transformation, Innovation & Technology

Languages

English, Spanish

