

Holger Stanislawski

Holger Stanislawski, born in Hamburg in 1969, is a former German football player and coach. In 2014, he changed career and is now a successful entrepreneur and the managing director of a branch of the REWE retail chain in Hamburg-Winterhude. Lecture topics Holger Stanislawski: Success and failure in sports: how business can learn from it. Team leadership: A team wins. Always. Motivation and leadership: How far can monetary motivation go? Being different – Innovative thinking in sports and business. Teamwork in everyday life: From elite soccer to the cheese counter. His football career began as a youth player for Bramfelder...

Topics

Employer Branding & Human Resources, Leadership & Recruiting, Motivation, Resilience & Stress Management, Sport, Teamwork & Teambuilding

Languages

German

