

Dr. Daniel Stelter

Dr. Daniel Stelter is a macro economist, strategy consultant and is one of the 100 most influential economists in Germany. As author of numerous expert articles and current non-fiction books, he provides an unbiased view of the economic and financial policy issues of our time. Dr. Daniel Stelter is founder of the Forum “Beyond the Obvious”, which specializes in strategy and macroeconomics. He is an expert on economic and financial crises and advises international companies and investors on the challenges of constantly changing global markets. Dr. Daniel Stelter lecture topics: Inflation, energy transition & migration policy – Quo vadis Germany?...

Topics

Globalization, Politics & Economy, Politics, Policies & Economy, Society, Transformation, Innovation & Technology

Languages

English, German

