

Heiko Stahl

Heiko Stahl is General Manager of Vitra Switzerland & Austria, a family business that has stood for durable products, sustainable growth and the power of good design for over 80 years. After completing a trade apprenticeship and studying business administration, Heiko Stahl worked for several international office furniture manufacturers. In 2011, he joined Vitra, where he took on the role of Managing Director for Switzerland and Austria in 2014. In addition to this role, he is responsible for International Key Account Management, Workplace Consulting, and Trend Research at Vitra. In 2016, he completed an advanced program at Stanford University. Heiko...

Topics

Employer Branding & Human Resources, Leadership & Recruiting, Motivation, Teamwork & Teambuilding, Transformation, Innovation & Technology

Languages

English, German

